

Dr. Pendl & Dr. Piswanger Albania, the Human Resources Consulting Company, very successful in Albanian market since 2001, branch of Dr.Pendl & Dr.Piswanger GmbH in Vienna, is currently looking on behalf of our international client a multinational company leader in oil and gas sector, for an experienced professional for the position of:

Environmental Advisor

Responsibilities of the position include but not limited to:

- ◆ Set up and maintain an Environmental Management System (EMS) and subsequent Environmental Management Plan for implementation (EMP).
- ◆ Assess and maintain compliance to IOGP standards.
- ◆ Create data reports and complete environmental reporting requirements for: emissions, GHG, energy use etc.
- ◆ Define with the help of internal stakeholders, regulator, and consultants the interpretation of the applicable environmental and IA legislation on which SUA should base the execution of ESHIA and related permits.
- ◆ Engage with internal and external stakeholders as required to facilitate the ESHIA process, especially to facilitate the design of the engagement approach, the consultation and disclosure of the ESHIA findings.
- ◆ Ensure regulatory monitoring of the environmental licenses.
- ◆ Set Environmental KPIs for the venture and contractors.
- ◆ Provide Environmental Training to company staff and its contractors.
- ◆ Provide guidance and support to incident investigations that have an environmental consequence.

Requirements:

- ◆ University in Chemistry / Chemical Engineering, Environmental Sciences or equivalent
- ◆ At least 5 years of proven experience in similar role in mining, chemical or oil and gas industry.
- ◆ Highly capable to understand environmental management principles
- ◆ Strong integration and coordination skills
- ◆ Solution-minded and result-driven person
- ◆ Good communicator and able to engage stakeholders at all levels, from governmental to local community
- ◆ Fluent in speaking and writing both Albanian and English language is a must.

Place of work: Tirana

Interested candidates are invited to send their professional resume until

September 1st, 2021 to the following

e-mail address: aplikime@pendlpiswanger.al

